

On June 2nd, please retain the current broadcast ownership rules. Eventually it would be optimal to even expand the minimum number of companies that own our media, since too few are in control now. To make our airwaves and newspapers even less diverse will be writing the FCC out of its own role. Regardless of your political position, the role of the FCC is to protect and regulate communications, NOT TO GIVE IN TO CORPORATE PRESSURE!

We in United States deserve diversity and fair reporting. I am also outraged as a citizen that you, as a government agency "refuse" any phone calls! You may want to check your bylaws and the legality of the process that you are taking regarding this. I cannot believe that you would dismiss the public opinion on this matter. More public comments need to be considered, and you need to NOT change the current regulations at
